

Madam

You must allow me to thank you for your elegant present, & for the friendly note which accompanied it, & which rendered it doubly valuable.
I have always considered it as a peculiar privilege attached to my profession, that I have it occasionally in my power to oblige my friends, among which number I shall always hope to include your family.

I am

Karl'sch Bark
